Choices Planner...

- Makes career transition planning easier and more effective
- Builds self-knowledge with a variety of assessments
- Connects clients to detailed occupation and education reports
- Saves you time and reaches more clients with a self-guided format and home access
- Measures client plans and reports your success

"It's all in one... it's self-contained -- it gives you an interest inventory, work values, aptitudes and skills or work history, then a person can search on those things and come up with matches to possible occupations... It's a good place to start and a good place to narrow things down."

- Wayne Harvey
Senior Rehabilitation Counselor

"I love the ease of use. It is great having so much vital information at your finger tips...."

- Mark Danaher
Manchester HS Connecticut

Now clients can compare, connect and choose from a vast network of work and learning options – effortlessly building powerful plans in their personal portfolio. It's the Internet version of Choices career agencies have been waiting for.

Enhanced Accountability Tools

Review each client's assessment results and progress with enhanced accountability reports, including summary reports, usage reports, Guideway tracking and more. Use administrative reports to document your program activity and report your success. Sort and select users for effective interventions, allowing you to easily relate and respond to their interests.

Make Informed Decisions

Help clients make effective education and career transition plans. A comprehensive suite of insightful assessments and surveys identifies skills and increases self-awareness. Informative career reports show school-to-major-to-career connections, and can be directly compared to a client's needs. Practical, easy-to-follow Guideways suggest next steps for clients based on what they've started or completed.

Self-Guided Interactive Portfolio

Clients can easily create meaningful plans using the Career Plan Builder. Tools for resume writing and interview practice help them prepare for their next transition. All work is saved in Your Portfolio, available any time, anywhere – allowing clients to work on their own, saving you time.
