Module 8: Using the Get the Answers Section

Choose Get The Answers from the CX Online main navigation menu.

Use this section to access a library of articles and tips on issues relevant to student life. Explore issues ranging from acing the SATs to surviving your first job. Here's what you'll find in this section:

Ask Faith: Meet Faith Powers. She's an expert on just about every career out there and she's always ready to share her knowledge. Ask Faith questions and check out recent questions and answers.

High School: A collection of our favorite Web sites and homework helpers.

College: Tips on preparing for college, from acing the SATs to landing a big scholarship.

Work: Articles and advice on the working world, including job hunting, apprenticeships and succeeding at that first job.

Spending Your Free Time: Because there's more to life than school and work, here's a list of volunteer and recreation opportunities sorted by interests.

Math in Real Life: Ever wondered why you have to learn math? This section of real-life activities can help answer this question.

Question of the week:
What degree do I need to work with children in pediatrics?
Dasia

Faith says:
Thanks for your e-mail, Dasial The CX Online article Pediatrician can help address your questions!

If you're not interested in being a doctor, you might want to read the article Pediatric Nurse.

I hope that helps you find what you need, Dasial Thank you again for writing, and have a wonderful week!

Sincerely,
Faith
